Dear Leonard Williams, III:

Thank you for your recent correspondence concerning alleged criminal behavior directed toward you by your former employer, Wells Fargo Bank.

While we appreciate receiving your correspondence, I regret that the Federal Reserve cannot assist you directly. You may wish to contact your local law enforcement officers as well as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) at <https://www.eeoc.gov/employees/charge.cfm>

I hope this information is helpful.

Sincerely,
Board Staff

I need to submit information I have concerning unbelievable criminal behavior directed at me by my former employer, Wells Fargo. I am bringing this to your attention as a regulator. You have no criminal jurisdiction. I have already reported Wells Fargo and other entities that Wells Fargo has induced into criminal behavior to the F.B.I. and OCR. Please let me know how to best submit my complaint and accompany evidence. I am in the process of creating an evidence portal for the authorities.
