

This is a short letter to let you know that I am not opposing you anymore. You committed crimes against me and abused me. In all my efforts, I was just trying to make my situation better. I am suffering so incredibly and I'm going to die.

I need you to stop taking over my healthcare people and to let me live in peace until I can die. I don't understand why you are so cruel to me. I am under horrific financial stress. My mother took out $15k from her retirement last year, and didn't pay any taxes on any of it. Now we will owe a huge tax bill. My disability is probably going to get denied. I am not able to take this. I am getting a new doctor and I need that doctor to give me back my Adderall. If I had my Adderall, I think I could make just a little money.

You are so cruel to me, but you are the powerful one. It was a mistake to try to get attention brought to this situation, because doing so opposes you. You will not give me a phone call. You will not return my emails. You will not take me up on any of my offers to try to work this out in a way that helps us both.

I am disabled and I am paralyzed with stress. I live in nonstop torment and torture. Please leave me alone. I never did anything to you. I wish so bad that you would give me a settlement. You could give me a nice life that isn't such complete torture.
