History of Present Illness

Nursing assessment reviewed. Last seen in OMS by this writer on 4/2/19. Involuntary PIC to BH-Charlotte a few days ago. D/C from OBS yesterday. On Zyprexa, Celexa, Adderall.

- Patient disputes the validity of the petition. Though does admit that he was upset and made threats to harm self.
- Sleep fair - 8 hours per night. Appetite stable. Energy good. Concentration variable.
- Short term memory has been poor. Has subscription to Cambridge Brain Services. - No alcohol or illicit substances. No thoughts of harming others. No AH/VH

Patient reports the following which led up to his recent stay in OBS: Patient is from the Mountains in NC and reports that in his community it was known that he had been hospitalized and this had impeded his ability to have a normal social life. He reports when women would learn of his past they would no longer speak to him and people avoided having much contact with him. He moved to CLT in an effort to escape his reputation and start over. He reports being very careful about having social media and kept private his history of mental illness. In Nov 2017, the patient became suspicious that a friend had found out about his history and started avoiding him. He asked another friend to intervene and believe she was part of this conversation. The patient believes that they contacted someone through his Facebook page after he disclosed that he does have an account. Over the past 1+ year the patient has tried to discuss the situation multiple times with this mutual friend and has gotten increasingly frustrated and angry when she does not readily admit to this having happened. He states that she has made up "a lot of bullshit that does not make sense". He again became angry and agitated when she would again not admit that this contact had occurred and was the reason for this friend to start avoiding the patient. During this episode he made some threats to harm himself. She filed a PIC and he was brought to the hospital. Patient states that he was taking his meds and denies any other symptoms. He adamantly denies thoughts of harming self.
