

Impairment:

- Patient reports he has applied for disability. States he has not been able to function over the last year due to situations related to job at Wells Fargo.
 - Patient does report ongoing distress and is traumatized by the events.
 - Patient reports his sleep schedule is variable but states he is able to get 7-9 hours in a 24 hour period. No major changes in appetite are reported.
 - He describes pacing which has continued but is not as often as in the past. He states he has enough energy. Concentration varies and can be difficult when he has to complete a task. For example, reports almost missing deadlines for bankruptcy filing because he is unable to function to complete the paperwork.
 - The patient reports recurring but fleeting thoughts of harming self with no plan or intent. No preparatory action. Is future oriented.
 - Does report depersonalization during which he feels detached. He also reports some irritability and hypervigilance at times.
- in re beliefs: they cause him significant anxiety and worry that has been debilitating.

Crimes:

States he has not been able to function over the last year due to situations related to job at Wells Fargo.

- Patient also relates that he has contacted the FBI re: Mobile Crisis and has several questions about the INVOL process and the timing of signatures.
- He has contact with psychologist John who has written him a letter regarding his clinical impression and has helped with questions of civil commitment.

Patient is a 39 year old male with a history of Bipolar D/O and ADD. Also, reports prolonged trauma secondary to certain situations that have occurred in the past few years. Meds: Zyprexa, Celexa, Adderall. Last visit 2/4/20.

Mental Wellness:

Finally, the patient asks this writer whether I believe that he exhibits delusions or psychosis. I am unable to confirm the patient's account of these situations. Whether the content of the thoughts is accurate or based in reality is unclear - it is evident that the patient is convinced that his beliefs are true and they cause him significant anxiety and worry that has been debilitating.