

7/21/2020 call

0:05 – I am a little bit distressed

4:00 – before I was in hell for 80%+ of the day. What comes to my mind is the relief that death will give me

4:35 – I am noticing that I am extremely sensitive to stress. Going to the pharmacy had me paralyzed. It would have been intolerable for me to go to mail off my disability paperwork.

9:35 – 80 to 90% of the time, plus, I couldn't do anything

17:00 – I don't like to have to drive there twice, now that I'm disabled

17:18 – I ask why she asks what the charge was that I am filing against Wells Fargo for. I mention that she had a notepad and was taking notes.

Kathy confirms she did this and said that she was just curious.
