

Facts

1. My mother has this intense drive to invade my privacy and control my life.
2. My mother has this sweet personality and this childlike voice that are very disarming.
3. Atrium Health is reckless in protecting its patients' rights.
4. Atrium Health's employees don't even know that its patients have rights
5. Atrium Health has been disinhibited by dealing almost exclusively with powerless people. 80% or more of Atrium Health's patients are Medicaid and Medicare patients.

What do you think is going to happen here?

Questions

1. How does my sister know my doctor's name?
2. Why is my sister sending my mother the address to my hospital on 5/31/2019?
3. Why are there no notes for 5/31/2019 about my mother contacting my hospital?
4. Why is my sister sending my mother a screenshot of the building where she can find my doctor, Kathy, on 1/29/2020? Note that items 2 and 4 both occur near times that my mother is visiting me.
5. Why does my mother have Facebook data on her phone? Why is she hostile when I bring this up?
6. How does my mother know Jenny's phone number?

7. Why does Jenny start to have my mother on her mind, all of the sudden, following the April 2019 hospital stay?
8. Why does my mother lie to me and tell me that the people at Atrium didn't call her during the April 2019 hospital stay?