I am damn near dead. I will not live through much more of this.

Please warn people about dealing with this god damn bank. This process is murder and it is ridiculous. I have been more patient than I should have been, as I sit here being tortured for months.

If you need me to testify to prosecute them I will, but you are not going to prosecute them, ever. It will kill me but why even think about it.

100 years + prison time to go around, they get precisely 0. They also get to make ridiculous demands for a brain scan that I pay for, as I'm tortured begging my mother for money and fighting with her, murdering me every time.

When I go on a crime spree against this bank, I'll send you my list of demands. What is this? I'll never do this and I'm very angry so understand, but you are speaking to a dying man who has been massacred and left to suffer because he asked this bank to tell the truth. I am damn near dead. I need this stress about money to relent. It is pure torture.
