Update on my condition

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>

If you are concerned, my heart injury has healed almost completely. Each time this happens, it seems like they leave a slight lasting effect. If I seemed unreasonable in asking that my account have $5,000, let me explain. I am suffering extremely. I have to fight with my mother over money constantly, and these fights are wearing me down and also sometimes causing stress based injuries to my heart (any good doctor could validate this, I think. It is called broken heart syndrome). It is possible that I die from one of these injuries one day (I nearly have at least 5 times thus far). The reason I suffer is that a bank with $150 billion + in cash went on a massive crime spree against me. This bank pulverized me and there is 100+ years in prison to go around. If this bank is prosecuted, it may cause the entire global economy to collapse.

In lieu of the global economy collapsing, I am asking for help. I appear to be getting help. As I am getting help, however, I am having to suffer like there is no tomorrow, fighting for my life and getting injuries to my heart that nearly kill me. I do this by fighting with my mother over sums of money like $1,200, $40, $250, and similar amounts. It seems to me to be unreasonable that I suffer like this over these amounts, amounts which amount to nothing for a bank with assets of roughly 1,950,000,000,000. At the same time it seems very reasonable that I ask this bank for $5,000 to have this torture relent. After all, we are saving the global economy by letting them off the hook for this massive list of felonies that have left me disabled for life and caused such extreme suffering. Then there is the event that these heart injuries kill me one day, and in that circumstance the media releases what has happened to me. I can almost promise you that this will be a very bad day for WFB. To me life is about balancing our needs with the needs of others. I see $5,000 as not being anything to WFB but being a huge relief to me.

And that is another relevant point. I'm not asking the us doj for any money. I just know that what I send goes to WFB. They fund the help I am getting.

I want to apologize for that email where I say hateful things and send audios that also speak in unkind ways. I was extremely angry over missing my MRI. I didn't have $70 for a cab and it caused me monstrous stress trying to drive there. I nearly wrecked and I felt like I was going to have a heart attack by the time I pulled over. My gps had taken me to the wrong place, over something I did accidentally. I am extremely, extremely disabled. This damn near killed me. Again, $70 I have to come up with as a disabled man who cannot do much of anything, instead of it being given to me by the $1,950,000,000,000 bank that murdered my existence.

I do not know what is going on. I thought that WFB had shown you illegally obtained healthcare records. They have plenty of these, I can promise you. It may be the case that they didn't show you any. Very suspect things are going on with my healthcare currently, and it strongly suggests a deliberate cover up. I am deeply sorry that I said in one audio that the Doj could be involved in this cover up. I will also tell you that if you are, you likely have a good reason for doing so. We all have limitations and constraints, and I view you as fundamentally good people who mean well in all that you do. I hold nothing against you in any case. It would break my heart, but that's it.

The entire time when I was hurting so bad and being abused so cruelly, I dreamed of the day that the US DOJ would help me. I pictured it as a possibility that the Wells Fargo building I worked at would get raided, and all the people who participated in this merciless abuse and crime would get taken out in handcuffs. But it can't happen, this raiding of the building, and I understand. It was just a nice thought because the day this happened, I would have some dignity.

I want to tell you again, thank you for helping me. I want to ask you to please continue helping me. I will also again tell you that I will help you in any way that I can. It may be that the way that I help you is by helping Wells Fargo somehow. I will know when you tell me. I overestimate my abilities at times, but I do often think that I could fix this situation for everyone. It would involve cooperating with you, WFB, and the rest. This whole thing could become public knowledge with not much damage to anyone and even be a good thing.

I am as honest as I know how to be in my dealings with you. Anything that anyone is skeptical about I can prove, if given the right expert to speak to me, be it an M.D., or someone else. M.D. could verify my heart condition. If you doubt for a second that any of these crimes occurred, get one of the best investigators from the F.B.I. to look at my evidence and come talk to me. Unethical behavior on Facebook - I can prove it. Every last bit of it, I can prove.

I don't know what's going on and I have no idea what to do. I have some kind of deficit that prevents me from handling this situation the right way. I cannot make sense of it. Please have mercy on me and understand that I'm doing the best that I can.
