Important update on my situation

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>, charles.scharf@wellsfargo.com

The media has not read one single message that I have sent them. I have a reporter from the LA times who is wanting to set up a call with me. At this point, I have sent her my complaint, but she is unaware that I have sent the main LA times tip line 18,000+ messages. Once we talk a bit, this may be disclosed (I edited the complaint that I sent her. It doesn't have the part about me talking to the LA times).

This would be a perfect time to make this right without anyone knowing anything about it. Please someone contact me asap. I cannot let my life tank, and if I don't get help (or someone doesn't confirm that they will help me), I have no choice but to keep talking to all the media people that I can. The LA times will end up finding all of the messages, audios, pdfs, etc., that I have sent them.

I will sign and abide by any nondisclosure agreement that is proposed. I will do whatever is needed. My only concern is that my life doesn't tank.

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
