I will never be ok

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>

I think that people want to believe that I will somehow get better from this and be ok. This is not reality and I have to live in the actual reality. I am a ruined human being. My brain has been damaged to the extent that I cannot function. I live in terrible pain and will never have a life if Wells Fargo doesn't make it right. I need Wells Fargo to make it right and I need others to as well.

You have been watching me suffer, and I ask that you please help me. I just put my most prized possession for sale online. It breaks my heart and I shouldn't have to do this.

Wells Fargo brings up the process where we go
To court. They do this after I pay $250 for a brain scan that was supposed to get me help. I need them to make it right.
