Thank you

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>

Thank you for all that you invest in me. I may have ran my AU girl off. I can make it work with her. I know that I can. We've both got to focus and put effort into it, with a mentality that we will do whatever it takes. Right now I'm thinking that you are helping me and that I will be ok. I really want to win this fight that I'm fighting for my life.

AU girl brightened my day. I felt like I had something to lose, or that I would in the near term future. I started to fear the day that all I have will be taken with such cruelty. I feel very bad for complaining about her, after what you had done. You did something amazing and wonderful there. Even if I do die, at least I had this to brighten my day and make my suffering better.
