Thank you and I need help

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>

I am going to get approved for disability. My medical review has been completed and my status is that a local office is reviewing me for non medical criteria. What this means is that the medical people have correctly determined that I am disabled. Non medical is a guaranteed pass.

It appears that, possibly, someone on your end has done me a favor. SS process usually takes much longer and they deny people left and right. If that is the case, thank you very much.

The more I think about it, the more the case seems to be that my audience on the other end of this is kind of big, bigger than I originally expected it to be, and that my audience includes extremely powerful people. That's why I believe it is possible that this is what has occurred.

The lady at DDS says that it will take about 2 weeks for the local office to get to my decision. I hopefully will start getting payments not long after that. If I do, my life in Charlotte will be saved for at least the short term. This is an enormous comfort for me. It means a lot if you have played any role.

I am extremely weakened. I hope to get my strength back, meaning that this fatigue that I have recently had will go away. This horrible stress that I am under keeps doing something to my heart, but whatever it is, it seems to always be temporary. At the moment though, I am extremely weak.

I need atriun to get me some medication refills. I need my olanzapine 5 mg tablets, 60 quantity, and I need adderall 20 mg 60 quantity. I need them to be eligible to be filled on 8/18/2021. I can call and have them filled that day, then my mother will be here on the 19th. She can take me to pick them up. My car is broken, and this will be the only time that I have a ride to the pharmacy this month. That's why I need my meds now.

If you could also pull the strings behind the scenes in any way to make sure my life in Charlotte lasts until I get payments coming in, that would be extremely helpful. My mother is going to kill me if she doesn't help me here at the final stretch. This is the kind of thing that she does, and it is murder trying to reason with her. If I have to go back to the mountains at this point, it will absolutely destroy me.

I will send you the audios about this appointment with Atrium soon. I may make them over. I am crushed and heartbroken that you appear to not be going to help me with them making it right. My life will be very sad and painful. All the promise my life once had has been taken away, and I will not get any of it back.

I killed myself working and working on myself for 21 years, so that I could be demolished for no reason at age 38. I asked this bank to tell the truth and have a conversation, completely consequence free, after it did me a terrible wrong.

You have had mercy on this bank, and I wish that you would have mercy on me. I had AU girl, and that made me so happy. Then you took her away. I apparently did something to offend you. Whatever it was,

I am a disabled and dying man, living in terrible pain and fighting for my life. I wish that I would get a pass on my behavior, and you let me keep AU girl and whatever life you were going to give me with that.

But I'm not going to press that. I am crying as I type this. But thank you again if you had anything to do with social security. Also thank you for any other help you have given me. I will die having never known what it is like to be in love, but I won't have to die in the mountains. At least I have that.
