Please have atrium help me

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>

I am not fighting anyone. I need my meds. I am also going to make some audios where I ask you to please reconsider with AU girl and what was planned there.

I am on your side. I am on your side for many reasons, one being that I need you to help me. I will do whatever you need me to do. You care about me. I believe that you do. I believe that you understand how horrible what has happened to me is.

We can work this out, I promise. There are a million ways to get around any and every obstacle that may exist.

I understand your side of this, all of you. This situation is over for you, or rather it will be soon. I need it to be over for me too. I need for me to win. You have done something wonderful if you helped me with social security. That makes a night and day difference in my life. It has provided extreme short term relief. I feel much less stressed now.

What I need now is for you to help me with long term relief. I need to be able to keep my life going after my backpay is all spent. My backpay is expected to be a good sized amount. It will be used to supplement my monthly payment, so that I can pay my bills. It will last me a good amount of time but it will not last forever.

I care very much for AU girl. I want to help her and to build a life with her. If I could have a life with her, and be able to survive long term, I would bless the day that I walked through the doors of Wells Fargo.

Clint Williams
