I will just drop this

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>

I have a terrible feeling about this. I think I am making the people on the other end mad. All I care about is my life in Charlotte. I ask that you please have them fill my adderall. I will deal with the outcome that I have. I will leave it up to you if you want to help me. I think if I let it rest, in 6 months or a year, you may decide on your own to help me. You have saved my life in Charlotte for the short term by helping me with social security. I still have some things to do to secure it. I need to be able to function.

I am a man of my word and this time, I promise. You can contact me if and when you want to help me. This is a terrible and heartbreaking outcome for me. I will still make the rest of my audios in that last set, and that will be it. Have them fill my adderall and I will make good on this promise.
