Please will you help me

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>

Would you please help me? I need my life to be good somehow and I keep getting pounded. I am suffering extremely and it will only get worse if I'm out of meds. Whatever I need to do, I will do it. My behavior has been unbecoming many times, but I ask you to please understand that this is a result of my unbearable suffering and pain. You can think back to when I worked at Wells Fargo. I never screamed and cursed and lashed out back then, the way I have done. The difference is that now I am feeling helpless and am suffering tremendously. The suffering is unbearable and I cannot help my behavior.
