Help me please

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>

I am suffering horrifically. I have been doing so on and off all day today, and this is very typical. My symptoms handicap me extremely.

You are creative, smart people. Please think of ways to handle this that are kind to me and that help me. I'm an easy target but I'm not the one who has the moral responsibility for this situation.

I am the one who is suffering from this. I am the one who has been suffering. I am the one who has lost all the potential for his life, at age 38, after killing himself working and studying for decades.

We can do this. We can do it in a way that is fair to me and that also works for everyone else. Please send me a sign as soon as you can. Send me sign that you are going to help me. This relentless stress is killing me and I need the comfort of knowing that one day this relentless stress will cease.

I am being murdered with symptoms as I type this. It is hell and it is horrific.

Clint Williams
