Please help me

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>

I am suffering so extremely. I just had to go pick up 3 packages at the Amazon locker at my complex. The stress of this has killed me and put me in a state of distress. I won't recover from this for at least 20 minutes to an hour. This is how my life works. The simplest of tasks overwhelm me. I cannot keep up with life and am helpless to stop it from falling apart. This is horrible. Please god please help me --

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
