Please just let me have my life

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>

I moved to Charlotte and in doing so I left the hell of my previous life. My life in Charlotte is all I cared about. My employer brought the hell and the pain I lived in back. Then when this situation escalated, I was hit with a crime spree that damn near destroyed my life in Charlotte and any prospects I have for it to go on. Why is this so much to ask for? Why can't I have my new life?

Will you please do something that helps me? Please do something that looks out for me and my Interests and my concerns. I'm so excited to talk to atriun about my medication regimen and how that could let me keep my life. Then it hits me. You've got another ruthless, cruel scam in the pipeline. Another wave of abuse directed at the victim. I am destroyed by your actions. Please send me a sign that you will help me.

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
