I need to know that they will work with me

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>

Right now, I'm ready to end this. All I need is for atrium to up my adderall to 60 mg or 80 mg and I will almost certainly be able to work. This situation will disappear. I am excited for the first time in 2.5 years.

The challenge I face is that you appear to be being totally self-centered and not being concerned for me. You run one scam after the next. If you are concerned about me, I am sorry for what I said, but your behavior indicates that you are not.

I am going to start looking outside of you for help, if I can't get what I need. I ask for less and less and I don't get it. If I get traction with the media this won't be good for you and your interests.

I need Atrium to give me some sign that they will work with me. If I can get my meds adjusted, I won't even be that afraid to move back to the mountains. I can make my own income and move back to Charlotte. It will be tough because of my credit score, but I will make it. I am no longer helpless.

P.S. the reason that I know that 60 mg will make me able to work, almost certainly, is I have tried a 20 mg olanzapine + 60 mg adderall and it is like magic. I feel so much better with that dosage.
