Re: I reached out

I am severely weakened and will not make it much longer. You need to help me or you need to make arrangements for how you will explain yourself if I die. I have pleaded with you to save my life and thus far you appear to be fine just watching me suffer and die.

This is reality. I will probably feel bad for saying this and apologize in the morning. It is reality even if I apologize. I am a dying man. I have been slowly dying for 2.5 years. Eventually, I will die. That's what happens to people who are dying. For me it won't be long. I can't tell you how weakened and how tormented I feel.

I have been massacred. I ask for very little at all times. It's been one lowball after another from me. I can't seem to make my offer low enough. It is too much to ask for me to live or to have someone care that I'm dying.

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
