You have killed a good man

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>

You have crushed me with your cruel and merciless abuse. The doj was supposed to help me. I needed your help because I'm fighting someone who outweighs me to an extreme degree. You instead cruelly jump in the dog pile and abuse a disabled man until he dies. There are other ways out of this, and you chose the cowardly, immoral path that you did. You chose to murder me with abuse. I could have a life for what amounts to nothing for this bank. I needed a settlement, I needed my medication back, and I needed this campaign of abuse to end. That's all it would have taken for me to have a life. Instead I have been murdered at age 41, for no reason.--

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
