Re: "final" audios for US DOJ

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>

I'm worried that I won't be able to die tonight. This is killing me. You can save me tomorrow if I live that long. You still have a chance. I apologize for the abusive language. I am given to being abusive, particularly as I am facing my own death. Very sorry you have to hear that. You deserve to be treated with respect. It is just that you have treated me as a man with no dignity and murdered me and I get mad.

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
