It is going to be terrible when I die. You need to do something to stop this. It is not my role to do anything. I have no choice but to die. I absolutely cannot take this torment. I need you to help me. $100,000 would help me very much. $200,000 would help me that much more. I need money to have my own place and to get the very expensive neurological testing that will document my disability. Once I get disability income and my medication back, there is a remote chance that I could make my own life, without Wells Fargo giving me any more settlements.

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
