If I die, and I'm going to die, you will be found out. You have not done that well with your cover up. This whole thing is senseless. I asked for a conversation at zero cost and with zero consequences. I would have kept my word. Your opinion seems to be that the people at Wells Fargo are infinitely more important than anyone else. I think that the public will think otherwise. This merciless abuse and murder of a kindhearted man, for no reason, is appalling and people won't have it. If you think that this tape that was made of me (I assume you have it) or my healthcare records will save you, you are almost certainly wrong. I have written my explanation and it is accurate. Professionals will vet it. If you have taken advantage of this poor girl from my childhood and got her to say something, the truth will come out. My explanation of that is also very accurate.

I am an exceptionally good person, considering my life. I have worked so hard, having so much to overcome. I am someone for others to look up to, in many ways. The facts will show this. The truth will not be hidden.

It is going to be a show of unimaginable horror when I die. That's what I expect. The onus for this horror will be on you.

I need help to recover from this massacre. It is too much for me to take on my own. I live in constant torment and torture. I am very certain that you helping me is a far better outcome for you than what will happen if I die.

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
