I am doing very badly

To: "Division, Criminal (CRM)" <Criminal.Division@usdoj.gov>, civil.feedback@usdoj.gov

You need to do something to help me. I need something out of my fight for justice and things are going to not turn out well at all for me. What you have done to me is cruel and wrong. I am a decimated human being. Working for this bank was the worst mistake of my life and it has ensured a terrible and tragic life. This bank owes me and you do too. I want a large amount of money so that I can move to a country where people don't speak English. Belgium is a paradise. That's where I would most like to live. I am not welcome in the United States of America because I have a history of hospitalization for mental health treatment. In Belgium, I would be a full fledged human being. Belgium is a nation with compassion and a nation that would respect my dignity--

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
