Re: I'm suffering terribly

I talk to you as if you care. You don't do anything to stop the ruthless cruelty of this bank. You just look for what you can use for your own purposes, which do not take into consideration at all how much I suffer, or take me into consideration at all.

I sent you an email where I asked you "what can I do to help you." I sent you multiple such emails, if I recall right. I also sent you a letter saying the same.

Wells Fargo never offered to help you (except in executing your crimes). Wells Fargo disrespectfully commits crimes right under your nose and lies to you about wanting to do better. Your priorities seem to be backwards and you seem to have no self-respect as it relates to this bank.

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
