I am feeling intense despair. This feeling is horrible and makes me want to die. I drank a 5 Hour energy several hours ago, so that I could stay up for a long time. The later I go to bed, the later I get up, and it won't take me but a few days to get turned around to getting back up at 5 am again. I was very consistent until you victimized me again. One more victimization and you're going to be put in the news. This last one destroyed me. I am almost certain to die over this. After I get whatever I'm going to get out of this, I'm moving to Switzerland. This is not with the intent to do anything other than to live a better life in a country that hasn't been completely ruined for me and that isn't governed by a cadre of monsters fashioned from the villain in a Stephen King horror show. Once I'm there, I will have a right to everything they offer though, and it just might happen that I decide to take advantage of their non-medicalized assisted dying program. If I do it is my right. The best day of my life will be the day that I die. I used to be so happy.
