There was a chance for everything to be good, until you did this. You don't care because you're a bunch of demon possessed clowns. You seem to not understand me. All you care about is yourself, but if this were to become publicly known, this would be an instance of cold blooded cruelty and a horrible consequence of your actions. It would reflect terribly on you. One possible thing you are thinking is that I will get over it and change my mind. You can forget it. How did your years long brutalizing of a disabled man work out for you, in terms of changing my mind? I ask for extremely little and I am very much set in my ways. My ways don't make sense to others but they are what they are and no one is going to change me this millennium. I don't know why you do this to me.

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
