There is something different about you. The point of this small amount of $20 million + $5 million a year is so that the bank can hide what they are doing. It is not justice and it bothers me very badly that these people will not pay consequences. I mean the people that did this to me. The banking paying a small shred of a single day's revenue doesn't cause anyone to suffer.

It is quite likely that I die, after getting this amount. And that's the terrible thing; nothing will make this situation good for me. There is better and worse but there is no good. Too much of my day is dominated by the worst suffering. There is good to be found, among the suffering. That's a positive, but my soul is crushed every single day.

For sure, anything less than that offer is just not doable. There is no way that life would be worth living at all. The biggest effect would be the brutal blow to me that anything less would cause. For over 4 years now, I have felt like I am dying. I feel like I am dying everyday. Not a physical death, not exactly. I don't know how to describe the experience other than to say I'm dying. I am dying from being treated as if I do not matter. I cannot be treated as if I do not matter any more.

If you wrote me a check for $10 billion, you'd be lucky if I even smiled. That's the condition that I am in.

Since I've been working on my website, this letter, and my audios, I have lost a lot of search engine ranking. My tweets and Twitter impressions are way down, because used to all I would or could do is type on Twitter and facebook all day. I'm apparently getting penalized by google. There was a time when I was 3 or 4 out of the first 5 results for Leonard Williams III. Now I have to add my middle name to be concentrated at the top of the list.

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
