I've got about 8 pages of documents, or maybe 10 or 12, that I have made to send you, along with some audios that I have yet to make. The documents are stuff that I have copied and pasted from previous documents. May not get to them today, or I may. I have been wanting to make some audios to send in lieu of my letter. I've got 5 hours and 14 minutes of such audios already, but am wanting to start from scratch and be more brief with some of it. I've got a bunch of stuff from chatGTP and Twitter. I've also got a bunch of stuff that I have said and some quotes from a book.

I don't want to live in this country, after this is said and done. I may change my mind. I go back and forth on that one. I have learned how to get around in this country, and there is a lot that I like about it. It's just that the country doesn't particularly like me.
