You need to confiscate those healthcare records, they are evidence of a serious crime. You need to prosecute Melissa Scott. You need to prosecute every offender at atrium health, including those whose crimes you have sponsored and for whom you have promised impunity.

You need to prosecute Wells Fargo, lest the bank calls your bluff a second, third and forth time, shortly to be followed by a fifth and sixth time.

You need to prosecute the offenders involved in my kidnapping and false imprisonments.

If you can't prosecute Wells Fargo, due to Wells Fargo being too big to fail, you need to prosecute the people at the Federal Reserve, for being dishonest in signing off on its living wills, and deliberately exposing millions and actually billions of people to potential harm in the process.

You need to prosecute every offender in this crime spree, which is almost certainly the worst crime spree in the history of American business.

You need to stop being chickenshits and cowards, and deliberately lying about the victim behind his back. You need to be extremely less pumped up by the low hanging fruit that the disabled man, who is the victim, represents. Attacking him seems like an easy way out to you. That is apparent in your sickening behavior.

We have a crime spree, by a bank that is so totally out of control that it proactively delivers evidence of a serious crime to the authorities. That's the matter at hand. The enormous damage the victim has been dealt is part of the matter at hand.

I am not the first one to make a big deal out of what occurred in my repeated kidnappings. Nope. That would be the constitution of the United States. The founding documents of the nation you represent. If protecting the interests of Wells Fargo is such a priority that you think it's fine to trivialize the constitution, or to just throw it in the garbage, please make a public statement to that effect. Please try to make this an actual policy, rather than a secret that you keep to yourself and do your best to hide from the world. Do this, so that me and millions of others can challenge this in court, letting it go up to the Supreme Court if necessary. I did not consent to this state of affairs.

The matter at hand is your shortcomings, your failures, the harm that you have caused, and the list of crimes against a disabled man that have been perpetrated and initiated by this bank. These topics are the only topics. What are YOU going to do about this? How are you going to handle the contents of this matter we are dealing with?

5 kidnappings.

Numerous false imprisonments.

I can't type any more.
