I'm going to set up my neurological stuff soon. I called several clinics earlier today. I need to look in to the cost and I need to coordinate some neuropsychological testing. I think my cost may be capped at my $226 Medicare deductible. I may be wrong. If I'm wrong, I will not be able to afford to get the care that I need. I will have to wait until my mother gets her income tax refund. She has taken my money that I needed for my medical care.

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
