I will be happy when this is over. I will have to get something fair to me. I have ideas about how to go about it. The figures I've given are good reference points. I get mad at times, thinking about this. It pisses me off and also crushes my soul that none of these people will have to pay for what they've done to me.

I am excited about being able to help my friend from Twitter. I promised her that I wouldn't let her down, and it will feel so good to make good on that promise. Her abuser is toast. I just hope that there is no SOL that has expired.

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
