As I typed that last email from a few ones to go, I knew that it's not making sense. Or maybe it did, but I seem to be giving incompatible scenarios. They're both accurate. I have went back and forth on this being in front of the public since January 2020. It is a nightmare and it was a necessary step then. It was also partially an act of desperation. When I mistook those received receipts, it started to be a little different. I had some positive feelings about being on the news. I'd narrate my thought process to them, about how it would be interesting and cool and then be terrible. I mostly viewed in terms of short term gain, for the sake of destroying my life in the long run. I can't type

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
