Re: audio about my rationale

I need you to think about me and to work this out in a way that works for me. I need you to work with me. I've got a good rationale that will pass. I told you that if I got my medication upped that I would research this to find a way that works for you. I have made good on my promise. My settlement amount might need to be lowered. If we have to do that, and there is no way out of doing it, that's fine. I have never been your enemy.

My main concern was my life in Charlotte and I wanted to help you. That's from day 1, in march 2020. If on day 1 or on day 2, you told me that the way for me to get help would be to make this work for Wells Fargo, I would have done that. I was Wells Fargo's opponent because of what they had done to me and because of what they had done to others. I had promised people that I met online that I would help them get justice.

You made me the enemy for no reason. It was a mistake and this is a very hard situation for you to deal with. You can backtrack. Everyone makes mistakes. We can get past all of the bad feelings and ill acts and ill spoken words.

Clint Williams
