Nobody gives a shit. I've had some downloads but is in the single digits for every file, except 1, after you back out the bots. That's from my memory. I remember seeing that one of them has been downloaded 16x. The rest were under 10, and ~ 32.8% of requests were bots and crawlers. Also got to factor in me testing my links, which upped them all by 1.

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
