I have had some terrible injury from this stress attack yesterday. If I eat anything solid, I am in terrible pain and unable to lay down without feeling like hell. It is pure torment and you need to stop terrorizing me. At this point, my best option is to get whatever I can get out of this and then go to Switzerland and die. The already unbearable hell my life is because of you has just gotten worse and I can't take it any more. I want to die very badly. If you're going to do it, do it right. Shoot me in the back of the head with a pistol while I'm asleep. That would be an excellent outcome for me and it would have been an excellent outcome for me in 2021, instead of making me live through unbearable hell watching my life be destroyed as I am helpless and under attack.

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
