I like neoliberal capitalism. I hate the thought of a dystopian hell with no ChatGPT. I'm down for whatever. It is a moral issue, climate change. I want to do what is right. I really would be extremely happy if AI came up with a magic fix. I also have hope in Bill Gates. I most often feel, however, that civilization is doomed. I see us as collapsing progressively, with the only big question to be answered is how fast. Will it take 100 more years, or will we send the end of industrial civilization in 10 years? It is absolutely horrifying.

Warmest Regards,

Clint Williams
